[FROM THE CEO]

Dear Friends,

I am reminded every day that the Nebraska Humane Society would not be where it is today without supporters like you. Because of you, the lives of thousands of homeless animals are mended, nurtured, healed and saved. You are the help that becomes their hope; whether you volunteer, take a training class, send your children to our camps, adopt, or donate.

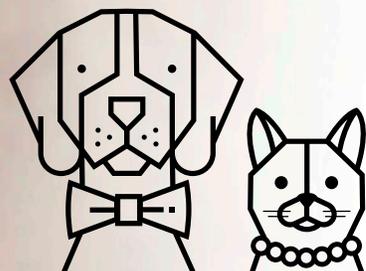

Nancy with her dogs Monty and Jackie.

This year, our signature gala, Black Tie and Tails, will be held on Saturday, April 21, 2018. The theme is “Sheltering Hope” which speaks to the mission of the Nebraska Humane Society and the hope that is given to the homeless animals. Please join me at Black Tie and Tails to celebrate the lives of these precious creatures. I look forward to sharing an evening of fun and celebration with you.

Thank you for loving the animals.

Where help becomes hope.

Your help becomes hope for Hurricane Evacuees

Twelve weary canines and their equally tired handlers pulled up to the Nebraska Humane Society on December 30, just in time to end 2017. It was the end of a long trip, but the beginning of new chances. The dogs were from the island of St. Croix, which was pounded by hurricane Maria in September. They had spent the time since, in a disaster shelter set up by the *ASPCA.

Two of our staffers heeded the call for help and deployed to St Croix. The experience was profound. Dr. Amber Horn deployed twice, offering veterinary expertise in preventative care, diagnostics and treating animals in the emergency facility. “Once my veterinary work was caught up, I was able to get to know the animals better by taking the horses out to graze, walking the dogs or providing enrichment to the animals. I was amazed at how trusting and grateful the animals were - how quickly they blossomed with adequate care! If the opportunity presents itself, I would do it again in a heartbeat.”

Morgan Mattson, a member of our behavior team, offered care and behavioral support for the animals, as well as support for the pet owners of St. Croix. She conducted adoptions in the last few days of her deployment and helped some very loving people bring a pet into their home, despite all the devastation they had experienced with the hurricane. “It was incredible to meet and work with people from all over the US who all had the same goal in mind. The animals who I worked with and the people I met really taught me a lot about overcoming challenges. They showed me that life can be absolutely devastating, but if you have hope and love in your heart, things will never be so terrible that you can’t rebuild.”

The twelve dogs who arrived in Omaha flew from St. Croix, via Wings of Rescue, to Florida and then caught an overland transport vehicle. NHS was the last stop on that long road, but the first step toward their new lives. We snuggled them in sweaters and let them stretch out and rest and heal. Some needed heartworm treatment, surgeries, or other care. Most have already been adopted. All will get the second chance they so deserve.

241 foster homes cared for 2,068 animals in 2017

A majority of those were wee kitties! Our foster families help us save so many lives by offering to house and care for the hundreds of babies we get in during the spring and summer. They nurture and socialize these kittens in their homes, providing time and TLC in an environment that helps these tiny lives grow strong. That care also frees up kennel space at the shelter for older kittens and adults who are ready for adoption.

If you can open up your spare room to a few kittens in need, grab a foster care application at our front counter, contact our foster care coordinators at fostercare@nehumanesociety.org, or visit our website www.nehumanesociety.org and check the “get involved” tab!

Fond Farewell

In 2018 we said farewell to our
VP of Community Outreach of 19 years!

From the days in the “old building” to the move to our Lied Humane Center, Sally Zachary has been a constant conduit for creating and maintaining a superb volunteer corps. As she steps down, she leaves NHS in an excellent position, with more than 500 active volunteers who are in every nook and cranny of the shelter. “This has been something I’ve thought about doing for quite some time, but, as you know, it’s difficult to leave this incredible organization, so it’s taken me a while to actually make this decision!” says Sally. “Now, I need to spend time with my 93- and 95-year old parents, my 5-year old and 3-year old grandchildren, and the rest of my family and friends.”

NHS was blessed to have this upbeat, sensible, compassionate staffer communicating with our volunteers, who last year donated 79,000 hours of adoption counseling, dog walking, cat care, surgical help, kennel help, event setup, fostering and so much more!

After so many years, Sally has met thousands of great people. “You have ALL meant more to me than I can express. The friendships and associations I have made here will remain forever, and it will be a pleasure to keep in touch!”

And it will be our pleasure too!

Your help became hope...

For cats like Sirius, who came into NHS so infested with fleas he had an allergic reaction and lost much of his hair. He had suffered head trauma and his left eye was injured and sightless. NHS veterinarians removed the eye, and a broken tooth on the left side of his jaw. They treated his skin and offered soothing baths. Through it all, this fabulous feline purred and chirped...loving the attention and comfort.

Tucker arrived at NHS after being hit by a car, four months earlier. He was dragging his right front leg, which had been broken and not set. But our vets found that his injury was more extensive. Tucker had neurological damage up to his shoulder, so his leg simply wouldn't work. Amputation was a possibility; however, this boy is young and goofy and active, so why not see if we could stimulate the nerves and save the leg?

Tucker went to a foster home for longer term care. His family drove him to Backlund Animal Hospital three times a week, where Dr. Michelle Beck provided acupuncture, laser therapy and deep stretching. In the end, the leg was too badly damaged to fix. Tucker is doing just fine on three legs. And with your help we know we did everything we could for this boy!

There are so many animals who need a little help for a second chance...help that you, our community, so generously provides. To donate and provide hope, visit our website at www.nehumanesociety.org or simply use the attached envelope.

Tails of Success

Oliver is truly a family member. Adopted by Sarah & Ryan Kopiasz in 2014, he was the inspiration of their new Salon, Oliver and Tate! Oliver makes frequent visits to the salon, sporting his own impeccable haircut. He loves being with his people and their friends.

Wilbur is a happy boy and has made himself at home in our home. We love him dearly and appreciate NHS for making these Pot Bellies available for adoption! - Kale Case

Pepper is now starting her 14th year of life with me, so I figured I would send a couple photos of her at leisure. We live close to a cornfield so she has developed into a good mouser for those venturing inside! She loves to be brushed and scratched, when not resting her eyes and conserving energy for a mouse. I was lucky to be there back in May of 2004 as she's a great cat! - Ed Eberlein

I adopted Mitch a few weeks ago and he is perfect. We are best friends and inseparable. He loves going to work at the farm with me and loves going on long walks on the trails without his leash. Chasing pheasants makes 10 year old Mitch feel like a puppy again. He is on some supplements for his arthritis and allergies which are helping so much and making him so much more comfortable. Thank you for getting us together. Everyone keeps telling me that Mitch is so lucky that he won the doggy lottery but I'm the lucky one. He's my best friend! - Reagan Casserly

Zeus, formerly known as Jericho, was adopted from The NE Humane Society July 14 of 2011. When I met him, he was a 75 pound beautiful, yet sad, hound. Once home he was nervous. He would not relax, did not seem to understand what the yard was for, and didn't seem to trust me. He got nervous and mouthy, so we enrolled in a weekly class at the Humane Society. It became our Friday night date!

I also called the behavior helpline and got guidance, and we continued to socialize him post classes. He became my sidekick - goes to friend's homes, loves being around other dogs and people, and occasionally joins me at work. People always remark on his size and beauty and ask where I got him, to which I proudly respond: "The Nebraska Humane Society". My sad, 75 pound, arm-chewing boy has blossomed into a 110-pound snuggler.

- Zeus' Service Human, Rebecca Hamata

My son had wanted a tortoise for several years. We visited the humane society a few weeks back and there happened to be two Russian tortoises, just the kind he wanted. After much deliberation, we adopted Tippy the Tortoise. My son is so happy! He just loves this tortoise! - Heidi Keeler

Think of us on May 23!

Omaha Gives! is our local day of philanthropy, when you can support non-profits providing life changing services in our community.

On that day, we'll have a chance to make your dollars stretch further, through matching gifts and prizes, so dogs like Brooklyn will get the chance they so desperately deserve. Find out her story on May 23rd at www.omahagives.org.
